2014 Sustainable Communities Conference opens in one month, register now

Canada's #1 municipal sustainability conference is just one month away, and we're ready to deliver a potent mix of information, networking and innovation that you can use to make your community more resilient and sustainable.

Join us at FCM's 2014 Sustainable Communities Conference and Trade Show \(SCC\) for an action-packed, three-day learning experience, complete with a full day of advanced training by Canada's top sustainability trainers. It all takes place from February 11-13 in Charlottetown, PE.

Don't miss it. Register now and make your travel plans. Plus, all registered delegates can take advantage of discounted hotel room rates until January 17.

Serving up keynotes, panel discussions, workshops and study tours, along with the latest innovations in our trade show, this year's SCC delivers all-new, exclusive content to help your community adapt for extreme weather events and overcome today's challenges to local sustainability.
